VOL. 40. NO. 26 BRISTOL, BUCKS COUNTY, PA., FRIDAY, JANUARY 31, 1913. PRICE THREE CENTS

LEGISLATURE TO RUSH WORK

Committee Ready to Handle Measures.

PROGRESSIVE BILLS ARE IN

Bitter Antagonism Expected Against Some of the Proposed Legislation Backed by Republican State Convention.

By ROBERT HAIGHT.

Harrisburg, Jan. 28.

The legislative mill for the session of 1913 has started on its actual grind, and unless there is some abatement in its labors everything now points to a record-breaking session, at which many corrective laws are to be enacted. The various parties and factions constituting the membership seem to be trying to outrival each other in the presentation of bills to cover almost every known defect in our form of government and others that are calculated to strengthen those laws already in force.

Immediately after the election of the clerks and various attaches of the house last week Speaker Alter made the request of the different committee chairmen that they perfect an organization of their committees and endeavor to handle the bills referred to them with as much expedition as possible, so that the calendars can be brought up to a working point. It is the hope of the speaker that he can so arrange matters this session that the members can stay right at their work until Thursday of each week He is opposed to the habit which the last session got into of meeting on Monday night and then forcing an adjournment on Tuesday night or Wednesday morning because of lack of work. He figures that the members would rather spend more time here each week than to stretch the session out into the months of May and June, which will have to be done this year unless expedition is used.

The much-heralded Flinn or Progressive bills have made their appearance, and as these will lead to bitter antagonism the members are pleased that they are before the various committees ready for threshing out the good and bad features Many of these bills will met with the antagonism of Governor Toner's friends in both branches, as they have prepared legislation touching on these points that they regard as serving the purpose wanted, with the drastic features eliminated. It is expected that the measures Advocated by the chief executive will make their appearance at an early date, so as to put them under way in the committees at the same time that the Flinn bills are being given consideration.

Much time will undoubtedly be consumed in the consideration of a public utilities bill at this session. The supporters of Governor Tener maintain that the bill which was presented last session by Speaker Alter contains all the corrective features of this question which are necessary, while not entailing any particular hardships on the public service corporations of the state, and this combination will strive to have their measure enacted into a law over the one advocated by the Flinn-Wasson combination.

While the Tener bill has not yet made its appearance, the governor maintains that it is a better and broader measure than the one now before the house committee on judiciary general which is backed by the Flinn supporters. One feature of the bill which it is claimed makes it more attractive to genuine progressiveness is the provision for the stringent regulation of the issue of stocks and bonds, a subject which is purposely omitted from the Flinn measure. Under the Tener bill the utilities commission will be given the power to supervise the issue of stocks and bonds, and one provision compels companies desiring to increase their obligations to file with the commission a statement of the form in which the securities are to be issued and the specific purposes for which the money obtained from their sale is to be used.

Provision will be made that where the proceeds are to be used for bona fide improvements and materials which will strengthen the concern without unduly burdening the traffic or other business to be accommodated the commission is authorized to permit the floating of the loan or the increase of the capital. The only test to be applied is the question whether the loan or increase of capital is to be used for the purpose of upbuilding the concern, and would it be favorable to good service at reasonable rates, and further provision is made that after the money is spent the corporations would be compelled to make an accounting for the use of the funds.

Redeeming Platform Pledges

Other bills which the Flinn followers are pledged by their state convention platform to push for passage have also been given to the appropriate committees for consideration and report. Among these are the resolutions to ratify the income tax and direct election of United States senators amendments to the federal constitution The joint resolution regarding the election of United States senators has already been favorably acted upon by the committee and it will no doubt be adopted by both houses without much objection, whereupon it will be certified to Secretary of State Knox, of the federal government.

The bills covering child labor and the hours of employment of women, which have already been discussed at length, were presented by J. R. Jones, of Schuylkill county, who also presented a non-partisan ballot law, together with eight bills amending the present election laws, the changes being necessary because of the drafting of the new legislation. The main points of this measure are as follows

Changing the penalty for vote selling to $500 fine and one year imprisonment, and for vote buying to $500 fine and from one to three years' imprisonment.

Making fraudulent voting punishable by a fine of $500 and imprisonment of one to three years.

Making watchers appointable by common pleas courts on application of ten qualified electors. The watcher is to be present during the casting and counting of the ballots and while the return sheet is being made out. For this service he is to be paid $5 by the county.

Prohibiting judges of election to assist voters or allow assistance except upon affidavit of inability to mark ballots. This is subject to [illegible] and ballot [illegible] and from [illegible] fine and [illegible] fine and [illegible] imprisonment on voters who cast or attempt to cast other than the official ballot, or without proper affidavits permit assistance or mark ballots in the presence of others or make false affidavits as to physical disability.

The bill creating the state department of charities has been handed in by George W. Richards, of Allegheny. It abolishes the present state board and proposes for the creation of a department with a head and a voluminous staff of assistants. It will be opposed by all of the regulars and the friends of the governor, who recommended in his message that the present system be continued and given wider powers if necessary.

When the measure prepared by the Pennsylvania Anti Saloon league comes up for consideration it will lead to a tilt drawing of the lines between the various factions in the house. This measure carries out the recommendations of Governor Tener in his message, to the effect that all clubs, political social or otherwise, should be licensed and subjected to the same restrictions as the licensed saloon keeper or hotel proprietor Under the terms of the act presented it is provided that each club seeking a license to sell liquor shall select one of its members who shall be held responsible for any violation of the liquor laws within the club and that the application be accompanied by a full list of the membership, and that it shall be signed by at least one-half of the members and at least three officers. The selling of liquor on Sundays and election days is distinctly forbidden.

Since the making public of the governor's message in which this proposition was urged the members from almost every section of the state have been deluged with protests from their constituents urging them to vote against this bill on the ground that it is a curtailment of their rights and privileges

Restricting Cold Storage.

With a view to restricting cold storage operations and hopeful of reducing the growing high cost of living by the combinations of capital in food stuffs, Representative Sigmund J Gutmann, of Philadelphia, has presented a bill making the following regulations as to the time meat, poultry, eggs and butter shall remain in cold storage. Beef, pork and sheep, four months, lamb and veal, three months; fish, three months, and eggs and butter four months. The bill further provides that refrigerating plants shall stamp on their holdings the date they were received, and fines of $200 to $1000 and imprisonment up to six months are the punishments prescribed for violation of the act, the jail term for each subsequent offense being a year, with the option of a fine Provision is also made for the appointment by county commissioners of inspectors at $1800 per year and assistants at $1200, and the act is made effective ninety days after its passage.

Another bill of a like nature has been prepared by Mr Wiltbank, of Philadelphia, which places the regulation of all cold storage plants in the state under the supervision of the department of agriculture and provides that all food shall be stamped with the date of its being stored.

Both these bills will undoubtedly be fought to the limit by the cold storage interests of the state, which contend that should they pass and become applicable every cold storage plant in the state would have to close, and they declare would precipitate a food famine within six months.

It is expected that within a few days the bill proposing an amendment to the constitution extending the right of suffrage to women will be presented and judging from the talk among the members there is every likelihood that it will be passed at this session A similar measure was killed last session, since which time the friends of the suffrage movement have been more than active, and they claim to have secured enough pledges from senators and representatives to insure the passage of their bill at this session They have had a legal commit tee pass on the provisions of their bill and put in such legal form as will warrant it proof again any attacks on this score. The anti suffragists are also active, and like their sister have engaged headquarters and have a corps of lobbyists at work trying to induce members to vote against the proposition.

A Choice of Evils.

Landlady—Would you advise me to send my daughter to a cooking school or to a music school? Boarder (reflectively)—Well, I think I'd send her to a cooking school. It may be more fatal in its results, but it isn't anything like so delay.

You Know Him.

Gabe—That guy is a regular human electric sign. Steve—In what way? Gabe—He always looks tough in daytime and is always lit up at night.—Exchange.

The Thing He Remembered.

A young girl of romantic disposition sat at dinner next to a man who had once rowed on one of Cornell's greatest crews. She tried to draw him out on the subject of racing and of the particular contest in which he had captained the crew in his senior year. "I suppose," she said, "that your most vivid recollection of that race is of the cheers of the crowd as you came across the finish line?" He shook his head. "Maybe it was the start which burned itself on your memory; the recollection of the tenseness of the wait before you heard the starter's pistol?" Again he shook his head. "What is the thing in connection with the race that you remember most distinctly?" "Well," said the oarsman slowly, "when any one talks about that race I always brings one recollection, one picture, a very vivid one, to my mind right away." "What is that?" asked the girl eagerly. "The man who rowed No. 4, who sat just in front of me, had a mole exactly midway between his shoulder blades."—New York Tribune.

What You Eat in Apples.

Do you know what you are eating when you eat an apple? No, not the sorts and varieties of worms, for there will be no worms if you have bought your fruit from an orchardist who sprays his trees. You are eating malic acid, the property that makes buttermilk so healthful. You are eating gallic acid, one of the most necessary elements in human economy. You are eating sugar in the most assimilable form, combined carbon, hydrogen and oxygen caught and imprisoned from the sunshine. You are eating albumen in its most available state. You are eating a gum allied to the "fragrant medicinal gums of Araby." You are eating phosphorus in the only form in which it is available as a source of all brain and nerve energy. In addition to all these, you are drinking the purest water and eating the most healthful and desirable fiber for the required "roughness" in food elements.—National Horticulturist.

REVIEW OF EVENTS AT COUNTY SEAT

Interesting Correspondence from Our Doylestown Representative.

Doylestown, January 29.

Wiseacres at the county seat for once in their lives are nonplussed by the mild winter we are having with early shrubbery in bloom, lilac bushes putting forth their buds and the maple trees beginning to sprout their leaves, and so these wiseacres, never having experienced a winter like this, are compelled of necessity to take the other tack and tell of the hard winters of years ago when at this time in January the snow covered the fences, ice was four feet thick on all the streams where there was sufficient depth of water and frozen fingers, feet and noses were the rule.

Preparations are being made at the county seat for a "Chautauqua" to be held next August. A meeting was held at the fire house and Principal Carmon Ross was made president; District Attorney Calvin S. Boyer, vice president; Probation Officer, Mrs. Charles R. Nightingale, secretary and treasurer, so that the proposition starts out well officered. It is proposed to erect a large and comodious tent at some convenient point, probably the grounds of the Historical Society or the base ball field, one that will accommodate several hundred people and make the week a notable one in educational circles.

The chances for the location of a new industry at the county seat seem to be growing beautifully less all the time. It seems that there are plenty of young girls but that as long as their mothers are able to take in washing they do not have to work, they call themselves ladies but there is quite considerable amount of doubt as to whether another name would not be much more appropriate. The day has gone by in the United States when good honest labor is considered a disgrace, but these young people do not seem to have found it out. It raises again the question of whether a high school course is a benefit to a large number of our young people and whether it does not have a tendency, as it is now conducted, to unfit them for the effort to make an honest living in their own station in life. If they were taught more of the useful and less of the ornamental it would be better.

Quite a considerable amount of discussion has been brought about by the proposed bill to be presented to the present Legislature by which it is expected that the election of the Judges of our courts will be a non-partisan one and that we will have a non-partisan judiciary. The proposed legislation provides that all candidates for Judge shall file their nomination papers in the regular way and that all of the candidates for Judge shall have their names printed on all of the ballots at the primary election so that a Progressive may vote for a Republican or for a Democrat or, if such a thing be possible, even for a Socialist. The two candidates receiving the highest number of votes will have their names printed on the regular ballots unless it should happen that one person received a majority of the votes cast at the primaries in which event his name only would appear on the ballot at the regular election. Opinions vary here but the consensus of opinion is that it is worth giving a trial, not that it has ever been needed in Bucks county or that it ever will be here, but we have others to consider and it would certainly help elsewhere.

John Shuster, of Hotel Pollock, fame has re-opened his house, the purchaser having brought back his bar and he having appealed his case to the Supreme Court, which will allow him to retain possession of his house for at least fifteen months from February first, has been the most interesting hotel case in years and the end is not yet by a good deal.

Rev. Howard McDade, of the Methodist church, is among those men who are blessed with original ideas and with the force of character to make use of them. His latest idea is to find out the favorite hymns of his congregation and to ascertain this fact he caused to be circulated among them a list of fifty of the apparently most popular hymns, his people are to each one of them check off their ten favorites and return the lists to him so that he may compute the votes; as soon as he finds out he intends having a special song service at which these hymns will be used. The value of the idea lays in it enabling him to find out the favorites of the congregation and select them for his church services thereby promoting congregational singing.

Parchment or sheepskin used to be the universal article used upon which to write a deed, mortgage, or other important document, but of late years parchment has been supplanted by paper and a parchment deed of less than sixty years of age is a rarity, but the Recorders Office at the county seat had one presented for record last Monday that was written and executed as late as 1911. It is a deed made by the executors of the late Archbishop Ryan to Archbishop Prendergast by which all the church property in Bucks county is conveyed to him. The deed is beautifully written and received a great deal of admiration from the experts in conveyancing, who frequent the Recorders Office.

BRONCHITIS SUFFERER

Takes Druggist's Advice With Splendid Result.

If anyone should know the worth of a medicine, it is the retail druggist who sells it over his counter every day in the week, and is in a position to know what remedy gives the best satisfaction.

Mrs. Frank H. Uline, of West Sand Lake, N. Y., says: "For a number of years I was a great sufferer from bronchitis. Last July I had an attack which was more severe than any, and my friends thought I could not recover from it. Then I was advised by my druggist to try Vinol, which I did, with wonderful results. My cough has left me; I have gained in weight and appetite, and I am as strong as ever I was. I advise all who have bronchitis, chronic coughs, or who are run down to try Vinol."

It is the combined action of the medicinal curative elements of the cod's liver, without the greasy oil, aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron that makes Vinol so efficient

Remember, we guarantee Vinol to do just what we say — we pay back your money if it does not.

Thoughts are the food of a man's mind; and as the mind feeds, so it will grow. If it feeds on coarse and foul food, coarse and foul it will grow. If it feeds on pure and refined food, pure and refined it will grow.

Friday, Jan. 31, 1913.

There is a project on hand in Philadelphia to establish a home for destitute physicians and their wives. A home for destitute patients would seem to be more pertinent.

It seems a pity that the Democrats and Progressives Republicans at Harrisburg did not get together at Harrisburg and elect men of their own faith for the two clerkships of the House.

The Philadelphia Inquirer and several county papers announced, as news, last Saturday, the appointment of a Quakertown druggist as State Bank Examiner. The Gazette published the facts a week previous.

The establishment of the parcel-post system has already put a serious crimp in the profits of the express company trust. One company in the month of January has taken off eleven delivery wagons in Philadelphia.

Our compliments to Editor Addison, of the Hatfield Times, he who has shifted his political attitude three times within twelve months. Not withstanding our esteemed contemporary's opinion and apparently warped judgment, we believe the electors of the Montgomery county legislative district made no mistake when they elected Editor Bergey, of Lansdale to the Assembly.

The Pennsylvania railroad has requested bids for 12,300 new freight cars involving an expenditure of approximately sixteen million dollars. Can it be possible that the officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company did not hear the predictions of Republican gang spell-binders and tariff-paid political leaders of the distressing industrial depression that would follow unless President Taft was re-elected? One company to spend sixteen million dollars for freight cars, and soup houses are to be the chief industry in the land for the next four years!

The first move of the Progressive party toward keeping a permanent national organization was made last Friday when headquarters were opened in both New York and Washington. This action is intended to serve as notice that the Progressive party has come to stay, that it will not treat with the Republicans, and that it intends to put a separate national party ballot in the field in 1916. Walter F. Brown, of Ohio, will be in charge of the New York headquarters. He will devote himself entirely to organization. The Washington office, in the Munsey building, will be the headquarters of the National Committee, and will be in charge of Oscar King Davis, the National Committee's secretary. It will devote itself mainly to the distribution of literature and will publish the Progressive Bulletin, which will be the official party organ. Dean Lewis, of the University of Pennsylvania, is to have charge of a committee which will conduct a "legislative reference bureau." Miss Jane Adams is to be in charge of a "social service bureau" in Chicago, and Miss Frances Keller is to be head of a bureau in Boston to work for woman's suffrage.

EDITORS AND EDITORS.

The Plainfield Daily Press, of which Ralph L. Morrow, formerly of Bristol, is the editor and one of the proprietors, has adopted the interesting plan of having some prominent citizen of Plainfield contribute the leading editorial for the Saturday issues. Judges, lawyers, educators, ministers, politicians and others have each week added to the attractiveness of the Daily Press. Last Saturday Former Mayor Moy was the the contributing editor and his theme was "Editors and Editors." The following is a portion of his humorous effusion:

Has it occurred to you that editorials are pretty dry unless they be almost or quite libelous? and this suggests editors themselves, I mean the "really" ones, who do that sort of thing for a living. Who, what and why they are?

A newspaper is supposed to exist for the dissemination of news. Its object is to tell one half the world what the other half is doing and so long as it does this, the result justifies the means, but when it fails in this particular, it ceases to become a newspaper and degenerates into what is called an "organ," viz.: an instrument operated by wind.

Every paper must have an editor, and he must have some brains, not necessarily for use but as an evidence of good faith. He is a sort of literary strainer, used for the purpose of separating the wheat from the chaff; the good from the bad; the gold from the dross; the pure from the impure; the sweet from the bitter (or vice-versa) of all that is passed through his fertile and facile brain. He is a sine qua non of intelligence—a vade mecum of information—irresistible—irrespressible—ubiquitous—ever patient and long suffering. He is perhaps not altogether lovely and yet, we love him, if only for the enemies he makes—we love him for writing the things we want written—and we hate him in the same breath for writing the things we don't want written.

We expect him to feel our mental pulse, diagnose our mental ailments and cure our mental ills. He must divine our thoughts on all subjects, and present them garnished and flavored to suit all palates.

He must be divinely simple and simply divine.

And yet, with all this a man must live, editors must cater to paper in order to be successful must please, and while most folks are not averse to having the truth—the whole truth—and nothing but the truth—put into cold type concerning the other fellow, it doesn't seem to read quite so well if the reader himself be the piece de resistance.

And so I suppose newspapers don't tell the whole truth and all the truth all the time, and the editor is who, what, and why he is because of the demand of public opinion, which like a mighty wind cannot be seen, yet the compelling force of which none may withstand.

Harding Won $100 Prize.

Ross Harding, of Lahaska, was pitted against Amos Patterson, of Wycombe, on Wednesday, in a live bird shooting match at Wycombe, on a wager of $100 a side. Harding won the match, killing eighteen birds to Patterson's fifteen. The latter is a brother of Dr. James Patterson, of Bristol township. The agreement called for twenty-five pigeons, but it required only twenty-three to settle the contest. The following is the score:

Harding 2 1 0 1 1 0 2 2 2 2 2 0 2 2 2 2 0 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2
Patterson 1 0 1 2 1 1 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2

J. Arthur Fine, Bristol's crack pigeon shot, witnessed the match.

Fallsington Items.

Frank Hibbs is now boarding at Mrs. Kelsau's.

Miss Jennie E. Moon was an over Sunday visitor at home.

Mrs. John Sutphin and son were calling on Mrs. A. M. Leavett last Friday.

Mrs. David Saylor, of Lancaster, is making a visit at her son's, Evan L. Saylor.

John T. Fish, who has been suffering from a severe attack of pleurisy, is improving.

Miss Anna Watson, of Trenton, was an over night visitor at Miss Anna Moon's on Saturday.

Mrs. A. M. Leavett has returned to Philadelphia, after a week's stay at Charles M. Headley's.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Satterthwaite went to Harrisburg last week to attend the Agricultural Convention.

The Friends Sewing Circle was entertained by Miss Thropp, at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Lovett.

Miss Lillian Sutherland, who has been the guest of Mrs. Fannie Watson for some time, has returned to her home in New Mexico.

Charles Carver and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Longhurst went to Philadelphia to attend the automobile show last Tuesday.

Mrs. Eliza Hibbs has broken up housekeeping and will in the future reside with her daughter, Mrs. David Reed, at the old homestead.

Miss Bertha B. Richards attended a reception given by Miss Ida Buckman at the Bellevue Stratford, Philadelphia, last Wednesday.

Mrs. George Moon and daughter, of Trenton Junction, were over night guests at M. W. Moon's on Saturday. George Moon was also a guest on Sunday.

Miss Mabel Grosh, who has been quite ill at her home at Willow Grove, is now able to resume teaching at her school at Morrisville. Miss Grosh makes her home with her sister, Mrs. H. C. Naegley.

The local institute held here on Friday and Saturday of last week was as usual, well attended and enjoyed. It is considered to be one of the best ever held here, and Mr. Naegley, the principal, and the teachers of the schools are greatly to be commended for their good work.

Two men, Edward Fisher, of Morrisville, and Angelo Manichino, were killed by train near here on Wednesday. Mr. Fisher, who is a brother of Mrs. Clemens, of this place, while going to work in the West Morrisville yards, was run over by the "Modoc" and killed. The "Modoc" generally runs on track No. 3, but that morning came in on track No. 4 and as Mr. Fisher ran across the track to catch it, he was run over.

Angelo Manichino, while working in a section gang at Penn Valley started across the track for some tools. His foreman called to him to look out and he must have thought the train approaching was coming from the West, as he stepped on the eastbound track and was killed.

Penn Valley Pencil Notes.

James Groom spent Tuesday in Trenton.

Daniel Nolan still continues quite ill at his home, near here.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Deacon entertained company on Sunday.

George Kemble and family will move to Morrisville in the near future.

L. H. Forsyth, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Maguire.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer B. Wright, of Edgewood, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Wright.

Mrs. Bernard Maguire and children and Mrs. James Anderson, of Tullytown, spent Tuesday in Trenton.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Watson, of Fallsington, spent Sunday at the home of Millard Reed and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sickles and son, Doughss, of Trenton, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Sickles.

Edward Anderson spent Sunday at the home of Miss Wooley, of Trenton, accompanied by James Bunting, of Germantown.

Invitations are out for the monthly dance of the Fallsington Y. P. C. A. to be given in Fallsington on Saturday February, first.

A number of scholars of this place attended and took part in the exercises of the institute at Fallsington on Friday afternoon last.

Miss Lillie Sutherland, who has been spending some time visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Watson, returned to her home in New Mexico last week.

When Dr. Creighton was Bishop of London he rode in a train one day with a small, meek curate. Dr. Creighton, an ardent lover of tobacco, soon took out his cigar case and said, with a smile: "You don't mind my smoking, I suppose?" The meek, pale little curate bowed and answered humbly: "Not if your lordship doesn't mind my being sick."

AMERICAN TELEPHONE & TELEGRAPH CO. AND ASSOCIATED COMPANIES — LOCAL AND LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE — BELL SYSTEM

The Link Between the Telephones— The Switchboard

The efficient and well trained operator is the human link between telephone subscribers. But it is the marvelous, almost indescribably intricate switchboard which binds together two throbbing talk-nerves so that some two persons may talk across the miles.

There, in the Bell Central Office, is this wonderful piece of mechanism—product of a myriad of inventions by master minds among the greatest electrical engineers in history.

The biggest switchboards cost as much as a thousand pianos. They have 50 operators and require 3000 miles of copper and 15,000 electric signals. But the smallest switchboard is just as wonderful even when only one operator is required to take care of subscribers' calls.

Next time you come to the Business Office, ask about it, and we'll be glad to show you the local switchboard.

Hundreds Dying From Neglect

Every sufferer is cordially welcome to free consultation and advice at the Atomo Radio Institute. Come in now and talk it over freely; learn exactly what your trouble is, how much can be done for you by advanced modern methods, and how reasonable and easy the cost. Don't neglect yourself.

Stomach Catarrh.
Severe pain through stomach and liver or spleen. Vomiting spells, belching upgas, appetite poor or variable, bloating and distress after eating. Burning pain from stomach up to throat. Pressure and fullness pain under heart. Palpitation, etc. sleep unrefreshing, tired mornings, may be ulcers in stomach.

Deafness and Head Noises.
Whether from fevers, catarrh, obstruction of the eustachian tubes, adhesion of the small bones of the ears, thickened, sunken or hardened ear drums. Our new oscillation treatment restores the hearing and completely relieves the distressing head noises, the roaring, ringing, buzzing, etc., that so often accompanies impaired hearing.

Liver Complaint.
Aching limbs, sharp or dull pains across the back, burning pains in the shoulders, a sense of dullness, weight and oppression about the stomach, nervous, gloomy forebodings, nightmare, sexual exhaustion, tired and languid mornings, etc. Our examinations by the Atomoscope tells you exact condition.

Catarrh of Head and Throat.
Offensive breath, hawking and spitting mucus, scabs and scales forming in nostrils, sneezing, pain, burning and itching in nose, pains, in head, dizziness, impaired smell or taste, dropping in throat, etc. The Atomo Radio treatment will be a revelation to you! It is painless, soothing action and quick relief and cure.

Woman's Trouble.
The Atomo Radio treatments are especially beneficial in all female complaints. Ovarian and uterine troubles, the treatment is most pleasant and soothing, and decided relief and benefit are quickly felt and appreciated. All women suffering from any female trouble are invited to call for consultation and advice.

Bronchial Catarrh.
Coughs, raw throat, loss of flesh, pain in sides and under shoulder blades, shortness of breath, frothy or yellow phelgm, night sweats, all forerunners of consumption. Especially at this time of the year are these symptoms dangerous if not promptly relieved. OUR ATOMOSCOPE TELLS POSITIVELY if the lungs are effected. The Atomo Radio current kills disease germs instantly, and is soothing, invigorating and strengthening from the first application.

Atomoscope Examination.
A thorough, positive, truth telling examination by our modern Atomoscope is given FREE in every case applying for and beginning treatment this month. The examination by our GENUINE ATMOSCOPE IS ABSOLUTELY SAFE, PAINLESS AND HARMLESS.

The Atomo Radio Institute is the greatest Institute in the State of Pennsylvania for the scientific treatment and cure of all diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat, Lungs, Stomach, Bowels, Bladder, Liver, Kidneys and Diseases of Men and Women.

We would not could not place before you the following testimonials if they were not the statements made by our friends and possibly your next door neighbors. An offer of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS is not made every day to disprove a statement. WE KNOW AND WANT TO KNOW THE RESULTS WE ARE GETTING, THE SATISFACTION OF OUR PATIENTS WHO ARE NOW BEING RESTORED TO HEALTH WHO HAVE BEEN GIVEN UP AS INCURABLE. We want all to know that an incurable disease is the neglected disease, and that a chronic disease is not necessarily an incurable one. CONSULT THE DOCTORS. It costs you nothing, and they will tell you just what can be done and what is impossible. Then after examination with the Atomoscope and their new methods of discerning disease if you are accepted for treatment, you have the assurance of the best known Institute, the most favorably known Institute in the State of Pennsylvania, THAT YOU WILL GET WELL, that you will again enjoy good health and take your place among men and women who work and do a day's work free from constant complaints.

Read, Mark, Learn and Inwardly Digest. Act for Yourself.

An Affidavit.

STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA }
COUNTY OF NORTHAMPTON } ss.

The undersigned patient states that after doctoring for two years for Asthma, he applied for examination and treatment at the offices of the Atomo Radio Institute, where after a thorough examination both physical and by the Atomoscope, he was accepted for treatment with the assurance from the doctors that he would get well. This was February 5th, 1912. After following their line of treatment and taking their medicines he states: "I would not take $1,000 and go back to my old condition. I have gained twelve pounds in weight, have frequently walked the entire distance home after taking treatment (five miles) where previous to that time I could not walk fifty yards without being compelled to stop and rest until I could regain my breath. I have absolute confidence in their methods and their treatment and will cheerfully answer any inquiry about them either personally or by mail. They have accomplished more in one month than other doctors have in two years."

Sworn and subscribed before me this 6th day of March, 1912.

SUFFRAGE HIKERS DUE HERE FEB. 15

Word has been received at the Philadelphia Suffrage Headquarters from General Rosalie Gardiner Jones, of New York, commander-in-chief of the Votes for Women Pilgrimage to Washington, concerning the proposed itinerary of the pilgrims. The "hikers" will leave New York at 9 o'clock on the morning of February 12, arriving at Trenton two days later. Bristol and Burlington will be visited on February 15 and 16, respectively, and on February 17 the marchers will arrive in Philadelphia.

After winding their way through numerous towns, the pilgrims will reach Washington March 1, in time to make a demonstration at the inauguration of President Wilson.

In the list of orders sent forth by General Jones a welcome is extended to every one to join the pilgrimage for an hour, day, week or the entire distance. Each pilgrim must pay his or her own expenses, which will be about $2.50 a day, including lodging and meals. Any one who cannot go is requested to send a substitute. One small bag or suitcase is allowed each person, and wagons will convey the luggage from town to town. Costumes for pilgrims, consisting of cloak, hood knapsack and staff, can be had complete for $.

Young-Kennedy wedding.

George J Young, son of School Director Jacob H. Young, and a brother of Councilman Clarence G. Young, and Miss Lorretta Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Kennedy, of New Buckley street, Bristol, were married at St. Marks Roman Catholic church on Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock by Father Bourne, the assistant rector.

The groom is an assistant foreman in one of the departments of the worsted mill of William H. Grundy & Co. A number of relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in a brown velvet coat suit, and wore a large picture hat of brocade satin and carried sweet peas. She was attended by Miss Marion McDermott, of Philadelphia, who was attired in a blue coat suit with hat to match. A. L. Kennedy, brother of the bride, accompanied the groom.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parent and a dinner was served. The house was decorated with cut flowers, palms and ferns.

The bride received a number of beautiful presents consisting of silver, cut glass and china. Guests were present from Bayonne, New York, Columbia, Hazelton, Wilkes Barre, Philadelphia and Bristol.

The bride and groom left in the evening for a short visit with Dr. J. P. Kennedy, an uncle of the bride at Columbia.

Congressman Anderson Here.

More than three hundred men attended the men's meeting Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist church, Bristol, and listened to Hon. Sydney Anderson the youngest member of the national House of Representatives, representing the First Congressional District of Minnesota, deliver an interesting and instructive address.

Congressman Anderson has the distinction of having defeated Congressman Tawney, in whose favor President Taft went to Winona to make a speech.

Mr. Anderson in his address showed the need of a complete reformation of the rules of legislation in the two Houses of Congress. He showed the course a "bill" must follow between the time it is presented until it is completed by the President's signature. He stated that there were about 30,000 bills presented during the last session of Congress, but only 800 of them were passed. In fact they did not even reach the time of consideration. He said they were lost in the committee rooms, and it would take a large force of clerks a week to find them. The first Congress of the United States consisted of sixty-five members while the next Congress will be composed of 485 members. And yet they are working under the same rules that governed the first.

Charles J. Mathews' Home Robbed.

Burglars entered the residence of Charles J. Mathews, of Langhorne Manor, on Sunday night and made an unusual selection of goods, taking small pieces and leaving large ones of the same kind. In their choice of wearing apparel they apparently took what fitted them and left the remainder behind. A few instances indicate that they had some things ready to take but were disturbed before completing the job.

In the dining room the thieves took the plate silverware, but left all the large pieces. In the hallway they took one new rain coat and a fur coat, but left two new overcoats and a new umbrella apparently ready to take.

In the living room from three hundred to five hundred cigars and cigarettes were carried away. Three large and six small embroidery pieces taken from the centre tables were unusual and very handsome.

Mr. Mathews expressed surprise that the thieves failed to take a number of handsome imported rugs. The thieves were not in the room where Mr. Mathews keeps his Indian curios, secured in India and very valuable. The robbers were not upstairs and are supposed to have been frightened away.

The property is covered by a burglar insurance but the burglar alarm was not on on Sunday night.

$25,000 for Park at Taylorsville.

Senator Clarence J. Buckman, of Bucks county, on Tuesday introduced in the Senate at Harrisburg, a bill appropriating $25,000 for a park at or near the spot where General Washington crossed the Delaware river. Senator Buckman declared that the park and a monument on the Pennsylvania side of the Delaware river to mark the spot would complete a project in which New Jersey and President-elect Wilson are interested. New Jersey has appropriated $25,000 for a park and monument near Trenton. Governor Wilson, according to Senator Buckman is in favor of the construction of a $100,000 monumental bridge across the river to unite the proposed parks.

Big Attraction at the Family Theatre Tomorrow.

Edward M. Super, proprietor of the Family Theatre, Bristol, has provided an entertainment par excellence for tomorrow afternoon and evening.

A special extraordinary attraction will be the Swiss Bell Ringers, who will give a fine variety programme consisting of renditions on the violin, cello, harp saxophone, mandolin, xylophone and banjo. It will be the finest musical act ever brought to Bristol. There will also be a special feature photo play, "The Great Steeple Chase" in two parts depicting a thrilling horse race scene. See the advertisement for particulars.

Bridgewater Y. M. C. A.

A business meeting of the Bridgewater Y. M. C. A. will be held next Monday evening, at 8 o'clock. At the annual election recently held the following officers were elected: Henry McCoy, president; Horace Samms, vice president; J. P. Vandegrift, treasurer; George S. Cherry, secretary.

One of the special features every Thursday evening is the shuffle board tournament. James McCarry has carried off the honors the last two weeks. The prize this week was a safety razor. The officers contemplate the installing of another shuffle board and an additional pool table.

CHURCH RECEPTION A PLEASANT EVENT

The reception and social function held in the Bristol Presbyterian chapel on Monday evening under the auspices of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor was a very successful and pleasurable event.

The committee of young women who had the affair in charge were the Misses Bessie Harper, Clara King, Beatrice Chambers, Charlotte Betz and the Misses Bracken.

The interesting programme, consisting of instrumental and vocal music, furnished by the young women of the church, was much enjoyed by all present.

The humorous recitations given in a very pleasing manner by Miss Esherick, of Langhorne, were interesting features of the evening's entertainment.

At the close of the programme ice cream and cake were served. The programme was as follows:

Piano solo, Miss Phoebe Headley.
Recitations, Miss Esherick.
Organ solo, Miss Helen Webb.
Vocal solo, Mrs. J. S. Sands.
Recitations, Miss Esherick.
Vocal solo, Miss Marie Minster.
Vocal solo, Mrs. Lewis J. Bevan.

Lived Longest in One House.

John Burton, of Tullytown, son of the late Elwood Burton, has the distinction of having been born and having resided continuously for almost a half of a century under the same roof which is a longer period than any other resident of the borough can claim.

Church League Reorganized.

The St. James Church League of Bristol has been re-organized by the election of the following officers: President, Rev. John A. Carr; vice president, Mrs. Carr; secretary, George Leigh; treasurer, Edgar Titus. The meeting for the election of officers was held at the home of Mrs. Downing, Cedar street.

Ambler Landed Jobs.

Assemblyman Charles A. Ambler, of Montgomery county, landed two appointments at Harrisburg—the only two secured by any of the members from that county. Township commissioner David S. Bonninghoff was appointed a clerk to a committee at $7 a day for seven days a week, and Harry E. Eberhart, a paster and folder, at $6 per day. Ambler voted for Garvin and Leib for clerks of the House.

Pigs Feet and Eggs by Mail.

The parcels post business at the Bristol post office is booming and a horse and wagon and a substitute carrier is frequently pressed into service to deliver the many packages that arrive.

Chief Clerk Thornton says there are many odd packages that come and depart from the local office, including pigs feet, dressed chickens, eggs, scrapple and umbrellas.

Clinical Society Meeting.

The first meeting of the Lower Bucks Clinical Society for the new year was held in the office of Dr. H. Pursell, Bristol, last Friday afternoon. Several papers were read and discussions indulged in relative to diseases of the eye. The physicians present were: Doctors Pursell, Lehman and Sands, of Bristol; Carter, of Eddington; Thomas and Heritage, of Langhorne and Osborne, of Morrisville.

Has a Rare Buffalo Robe.

J. H. Vanzant has at his antique store on Mill street, a rare buffalo robe of large dimensions. The robe was made by the Sioux Indians and the skin side is painted in the fantastic manner peculiar to the red men and bears the representation of an Indian Chief in full war regalia. Even an ordinary buffalo robe is a rarity these days, but this one is an exceptionally fine one.

A Parish Party.

On the evening of January 15, a delightful social was given in St. James parish building. The music was exceptionally fine. Three ladies played the piano. Mr. Cobb, of Newtown, sang several beautiful songs. He also recited two very funny selections in negro dialect. Two little maids recited charmingly. Mrs. Anna Bailey King read several amusing selections. The young folks had a little dance, and the pleasant evening closed with doughnuts and coffee being served.

Leases of Properties.

J. Edward Lovett, real estate broker, has leased the following properties:

To John Ritter, of Bristol township, 516 Buckley street for Mrs. Sarah Pearson.

Embroidery Class Entertained.

Mrs. James Lefferts' embroidery class was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Frank G. Risley, Bristol, on Wednesday evening. Vocal and instrumental music added to the pleasure of the evening and a delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. Risley's guests were: Mrs. William Barrett, Mrs. James Lefferts, Mrs. William Lefferts, Mrs. Levi Shull, Mrs. Edward Renk, Mrs. Charles Strumfels, Mrs. Charles Strumfels, Jr., Mrs. Frederick King, Mrs. Randall Worthington, Mrs. R. R. Pearson and Miss Gertrude Lefferts.

Boys' Club Entertained Friendly Girls.

The Boys' Club, of St. Paul's Episcopal church, of Bristol, under the care of Louis Epstein, entertained the Girls' Friendly Monday evening in the parish house, with Miss Mary Gilkeson and Miss Frances Landreth as matrons. The evening was spent in dancing. Refreshments were served. About eighty were present. It was also a farewell reception to one of the members of the Boys' Club, Preston Moore, who left the next day for Philadelphia, to report for duty on the U. S. S. Minnesota, he having enlisted in the Navy and been assigned to that battleship.

Mrs. Nellie Webb Surprised.

Mrs. Nellie Webb, of Washington street, Bristol, who after February 14, will reside in West Philadelphia, was given a very pleasant surprise in Mohican hall on Tuesday evening by a number of Bristol Council, No. 58, Daughters of America, and some of her friends. Music was furnished and dancing indulged in, games played and a banquet served, at the conclusion of which she was presented on behalf of those present, with a very handsome picture by W. H. Lyndall, the title of the same being the "Courtship of Miles Standish," and also a handsome sterling silver Past Councillor Emblem of the Daughters of America, by Miss Ida Grason. There were about forty people present, a number of who made remarks.

Real estate of Christian Hardner, consisting of 15 acres in Springfield township, sold to Aaron M. Landis for $50.

CONDUCTOR KILLED ON THE RAILROAD

At about one o'clock Wednesday morning Harry W. Priest, of Trenton, a freight conductor, was killed on the freight tracks on the old line of the Pennsylvania railroad at Bristol.

Priest and his crew had been engaged in drilling cars into the freight yard, after leaving the main train of cars on the elevated road and were returning with the engine and one car to the main tracks. As the engine started the conductor ran and started to jump aboard but missed his hold on the front end of the box car and fell, one set of trucks passing over his body, severing both legs, near the knees. The body was also badly crushed. The accident was witnessed by the brakeman who was standing on the bumper between the engine and the box car.

The engine was stopped immediately and aid summoned, but death was almost instantaneous. Relatives were communicated with and a brother, Frank Priest, came to Bristol Wednesday morning and claimed the body, which was forwarded to his late home, 31 Carr street, Trenton.

Priest was 49 years old and leaves a widow and several children.

SWASTIKA SOCIETY'S FINE ENTERTAINMENT

An audience of four hundred that filled the Bristol high school assembly hall witnessed a fine amateur performance given by the Swastika Society of the high school.

To Erwyn Horn, son of Mr and Mrs. Frank P. Horn, is to be given credit for an entertainment for which he was in the main responsible.

The main feature of the evening was an operetta, entitled "The Embarrassed Heir," which young Horn adopted from the play of "Madame Sherry."

The cast of characters was as follows: Edward Sherry, Erwyn Horn; Lulu, Elizabeth Smith; Leonard Gomez, Harold Vandegrift; Pillippe, George Musnuff; Yovonne, Dorothy Myers; Catharine, Lillian Adams; Theopholis, Gilbert Lovett.

The chorus, which comprised pupils in Lulu's dancing class, was; Mabel Hartison, Ellen Hussey, Bessie Simon, Winifred Callahan and Sara Jackson.

A funny sketch entitled "The Restville Auction Sale," was also given. Those taking part in the comedy were: Marion Randall, Jean Williams, Beatrice Bracken, Sallie Louderbough, Sara Jackson, Ralph Ratcliffe, Amy Valentine, Francis Callahan, Freeman Baylies, Gilbert Lovett, Ruth Scheffey, Ruth Updyke, Lois Watt and Agnes Barton.

LANGHORNE PASTOR KILLED IN SOUTH

According to information received at Langhorne, the Rev. D. Charles W. Stocking, until recently rector of St. James's Protestant Episcopal church of that borough, was killed by a train at Bowling Green, Ky. The funeral will be held today at Bridgeport, Conn.

Dr. Stocking resigned his Langhorne charge last spring and went South to engage in missionary work. He was seventy-three years old, and was graduated from Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., in 1860. He was ordained by the late Bishop Potter in 1863. His first charge was at Briarcliff, N. Y. From there he went successively to the Church of the Nativity, Bridgeport; Christ Church, Ansonia, Conn; Trinity Church, Rochester; Church of the Epiphany, Chicago; Grace Church, Detroit; Trinity Church, Albany; Holy Innocents, West Orange, N. J.; Princeton Young Ladies' Seminary, Freehold, N. J., and St. James's Vincennes, Ind.

Dr. Stocking was the author of several genealogical works, including "The Knowlton Ancestry" and "The Taft Ancestry." His wife and several children survive him.

CHAMBERS FOUND, TELLS QUEER TALE

Alexander Chambers, the well known business man of Trenton, who mysteriously disappeared from Philadelphia, January 10th has been located in Los Angeles, California. His brother, John Chambers, and his sister, Mrs. Leroy, are now with him and the three are expected home this week.

Some days ago the Chambers family became possessed of a clew to the effect that Mr. Chambers had gone West. They immediately got into communication with parties in California and received information which led them to believe Mr. Chambers was there. The brother and sister started immediately for California and Monday night a telegram received at Newtown gave the information that the missing man had been found and was well.

A dispatch from California says that Chambers asserts he was drugged and regained consciousness on an island off the coats of Lower California. He new nothing of his transcontinental trip.

On the day Mr. Chambers disappeared he was to keep a business engagement in Norristown. He went to Philadelphia with Mrs. Chambers. She went on a shopping tour and he mysteriously disappeared.

At the time of his disappearance it was said that Mr. Chambers had in his possession, aside from many valuable papers and documents, a large sum of money. The members of the Chambers family, however denied this statement.

Mr. Chambers, together with his father, Colonel Thomas P. Chambers, some years ago owned the Newtown, Bristol and Doylestown Street Railway Company. The young man is interested in mining.

PARK TO MARK HISTORIC SPOT

"Washington Crissing" Park in Bucks County Gains Enthusiastic Support Organization Formed.

Decided impetus was given to the movement on Saturday for a park at Washingtons Crossing, Taylorsville, Bucks county, when about fifty prominent people met there and after looking into the situation organized what will be known as the Washington's Crossing Memorial Association of Pennsylvania.

Immediate steps will be taken to see that a park or other suitable memorial will be established or erected to commemorate the crossing by Washington and his continental troops previous to the battle of Trenton.

The New Jersey Commissioners who are looking after the placing of a similar memorial on the New Jersey side of the crossing, met the Pennsylvanians and after William L. Doyle, vice president of the New Jersey commission, explained what New Jersey was doing in the matter, Charles W. Leavitt, engineer for the New Jersey commission, told those present of the possibilities that the situation offered in Pennsylvania.

Senator Buckman, also in attendance, told of his interest in the project and stated that he has sent to the Legislative Bureau a bill which if adopted will bring about the desired results. His pledge to the support of the project was heartily applauded. Assemblymen Savacool and Foster of Bucks county also pledged their support to the measure.

After the sites on both sides of the river had been inspected the assemblage adjourned to the Grove house, where J. Edward Moon, of Morrisville, at whose instigation the meeting was called, delivered the opening address, outlining the plans regarding the erection of a memorial on the Pennsylvania side.

Judge William Ryan, of Doylestown, was then named as temporary chairman and the following resolution was adopted:

RESOLUTION ADDOPTED.

"Resolved, That inasmuch as it is our desire that there shall be established at Taylorsville, Bucks County, Pa., a park or other suitable memorial that shall commemorate the crossing at that place by Washington and the Continental Army and the meeting to further this desire proposes that we shall organize an association to be known as the Washington's Crossing Memorial Association of Pennsylvania. Further, be it

"Resolved, That we shall and do hereby form ourselves into this Association and that we proceed to the election of a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer who shall serve until their successors are chosen."

CONGRESSMAN WILL HELP.

The newly elected president then called upon the Hon. R. E. Difenderfer, Representative in Congress from the district. Mr. Difenderfer asserted that if the men and women in the movement will display the same energy that is being shown by those seeking political office they will undoubtedly be successful.

He attended the meeting, he said, to ascertain the feasibility of the movement, and gave assurance that in so far as his power lies he will do everything possible to have the two parks linked with such a bridge as has been pictured and projected.

It is time, he said, that Americans, who go abroad and stand with awe before the shrines of Napoleon and other great men of Europe, take steps to preserve many of the equally great places of historic interest in their own country.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The election of officers then took place and Ex-Judge Harmon Yerkes, of Doylestown, was elected president of the association. Thomas C. Knowles, of Yardley, was elected vice president, J. Edward Moon, of Morrisville, secretary, and Samuel C. Eastburn, of Langhorne, treasurer.

In order to devise ways and means to accomplish the object the president was empowered to appoint three persons who with the president, vice president and secretary, will form a committee to provide for a park or suitable memorial of the Battle of Trenton; this memorial to commemorate the spot.

The careless use of matches last year is known to have been the cause of 1089 fires out of 3875 fires of known origin in Chicago alone.

In this county 14,000 patents have been issued covering the manufacture of shoes and leather goods, and about half of them are now in force.

UNIQUE BENEFICIAL ASSO'N FORMED

Under the direction of Rev. W. T. Johnston there has been started in Bristol a unique organization entitled the First Baptist Yearly Beneficial Association of Bristol. The Association is one contemplated to assist people to help themselves and in membership is not restricted to sex, color or creed. All persons in good health are eligible between the ages of fifteen and sixty years of age and all dues and benefits are uniform.

John P. Betz, is treasurer of the organization and Russell Johnson, secretary.

The cost of admission is one dollar and the dues are fifty cents a month payable monthly in advance.

The advantage to be derived from membership are: Five dollars per week will be paid during sickness, payments not to exceed ten weeks in any year. Fifty dollars will be paid in case of death of a member.

A unique feature of the Association is that there will be a yearly dividend consisting of a pro rata division of all funds not expended for sick and death benefits and the current expenses of the Association payable on February 1st of each year.

Members become beneficial thirty days after signing the constitution.

Those having received one or more week's benefits will not be eligible to share in dividends.

Those wishing to become members are requested to make application to the secretary Russell Johnson, or to the Rev. W. T. Johnston.

Death Notices

HANNNAH A. McGEE.

Mrs. Hannah McGee, widow of the late John McGee, died of bronchial pneumonia at her home 634 Race street, Bristol, at four o'clock last Thursday afternoon. The deceased who was an invalid, was 77 years old and was a native of Ireland. She leaves a son and two daughters. The funeral was held on Monday morning. Interment at St. Marks church yard.

MARY J. WENTZELL.

Mrs. Mary J. Wentzell, 78 years old, wife of Daniel Wentzell, died last Friday morning of pulmonary tuberculosis at her home, 1030 Radcliffe street, Bristol. MARTHA YARDLEY GRAFF.

Martha Yardley, daughter of Selena K. and the late J. Livingston Graff, died at Lakewood, N. J., on Sunday.

The deceased was well known in Bristol, having resided here in her early life. She was a granddaughter of the late Strickland Yardley, of Bristol. Miss Graff was engaged as a nurse at the sanitarium at Lakewood, N. J., and her death was evidently sudden, as she had written only a week previous to a Bristol friend.

The funeral took place on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock, from the residence of her mother, 124 S. 18th street, Philadelphia. The remains were brought to Bristol on the 1.08 p. m. train from Broad street, and was interred in the St. James church yard.

SAFE BLOWN OPEN AT TULLYTOWN

One of the boldest robberies that has been successfully operated in this section was made last Friday night when burglars broke into the Pennsylvania station and blew open the safe in Tullytown. The yeggs gained entrance through a rear window, and from the evidence left it is quite probable that they were experts in their line.

When Amos B. Carlen, the local agent, went to the station Saturday morning he found the rear window smashed and upon further search found the large office safe had been blown open and its contents taken. The railroad officials refuse to make a statement further than the fact that considerable money was taken. The railroad's detectives are now working on the case but as yet have very few clues to work on.

It is a peculiar fact that no one in the place heard the explosion.

EDITORS HAVE ANNUAL OUTING

Allentown was honored with a visit by the Press League of Bucks and Montgomery counties, whose members with their wives, went to that city on Saturday on their annual outing over the new interurban service of the Lehigh Valley Transit Company. They arrived in Allentown at noon and were greeted by a reception committee of transit officials and Allentown newspaper men and their wives and escorted to the Hotel Allen for lunch. The large dining room was beautifully decorated and one long table in the centre was given over to the guests. While a delightful programme of musical selections was rendered by Prof. Joseffer and Mr. Berryman a menu was served that did honor to the culinary department and that fully sustained the reputation of the well known and popular hotel under Colonel Masters. The pleasure was enhanced by the presence of President R. P. Steens of the Transit company, who also delayed his departure for New York to remain with the party and be their guests at the banquet in the evening.

After the "luncheon," the party boarded a special car and there was a run through Allentown after which the ladies of the party, chaperoned by Mrs. George R. Roth, of Allentown, and Mrs. Edward E. Davis, of Philadelphia, the latter for several years a member of the league, enjoyed a special presentation at the Lyceum Theatre of "Mam'zelle" by the Calsmith Players.

The men of the league were taken in a special car to Bethlehem and visited the big steel plant there.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

At the business meeting of the League the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, William S. Schlichter, of The Poultry Item; vice president, William J. Ellis, Hulmeville Advance; secretary C. D. Hotchkiss, Doylestown Intelligencer; treasurer B. Wilman Dambly Transrip Skippack.

A splendid banquet was served in the evening at the Lehigh Country Club.

Mrs. Joseph Durkin, of 201 Washington street, left Bristol on Tuesday for an extensive trip with friends to Florida, including visits to Jacksonville, St. Augustin, Ocala, Tampa, St. Petersburg, Florence Villa, Dayton and Palm Beach.

THE HUMAN FOOT.

It Is Said to Be Changing and In Time May Become Toeless.

A London physician, Dr R Clement Lucas, says that if man keeps on wearing boots and living under the present conditions he may eventually develop into a one toed animal or more properly speaking a toeless one.

A number of years ago Dr Lucas pointed out that the gradual disappearance of the little toe was getting ahead of the textbook for while it had already lost one of its extensor tendons in quite an appreciable percentage of cases one of its flexor tendons was absent also. On the other hand, the great toe had undergone extraordinary developments because the inner side of the foot was the first to catch the center of gravity in transferring the weight of the body from one foot to the other in walking.

The horse which was once a five toed animal now moves about solely on the nail of its big toe or consolidated toes. There is no doubt that man's internal organism has been much modified since he left off living with nature and began living on it. Intestines have changed noticeably. The foot itself has also changed. It is more compactly built now for the toes of the savage races are widely separated and stuck out at different angles the big toe especially being thrown far out and resembling the great toes of a baboon.—Exchange

CULTIVATE SIDE VISION.

It Will Enable You to See In Several Directions at Once.

One of the most useful gifts one can have is a good side vision. By side vision is meant the ability to see in several directions at once and to know what is going on in other directions besides that upon which the gaze may be fixed at the moment.

Just try the next time you are reading your paper in the train for instance and you will understand clearly what is meant.

You can with little effort and while still reading follow the movements of those sitting opposite you and even those at your side.

With a little practice the range of your side vision can be extended behind you in each direction to an angle of forty five degrees and you can see clearly every movement that takes place on both sides simultaneously.

Now just think what this means. The man in possession of a good side vision is not an easy one to take by surprise. In business he finds it a valuable asset, especially when talking with more than one person at a time.

He can guard against danger from unexpected sources, and when crossing a roadway he can clearly see the traffic coming from either direction while still looking straight ahead.—London Answers

Magdalen Islands

In the center of the gulf of St Lawrence the small group of Magdalen islands are populated by 3,000 or 4,000 lineal descendants of the Acadians under Champlain and De Monts who were driven out of New France, Nova Scotia by the English. Since the first settlement in 1763 generations of the same families have raised scanty crops in the valleys and fed sheep and cattle on the high conical hills which constitute a prominent feature of an insular landscape. Year after year men have gone out on the waters of the gulf in search of the cod, mackerel and lobsters on which a livelihood depends. They are simple primitive people these natives of the Magdalens laboring all the while under circumstances that are most discouraging. The archipelago contains twelve or thirteen distinct islands including several grim rocks which are not inhabited and never will be.

The Resourceful Housewife.

In the club they were comparing the resourcefulness of their wives in difficult social situations. The man who lives in a Harlem flat had been a good listener, but he finally found an opening.

"Yes" said he, "my wife isn't bad at that sort of thing. We were having some people to luncheon one Sunday last spring, and just at an hour when all the delicatessens were closed she discovered that she needed some mustard and didn't have a grain of it in the kitchen. And she isn't the sort that will borrow from people next door that she doesn't know. It was a bad fix all right. But she got mustard enough."

"Went to the delicatessen man's house and routed him out I suppose?" suggested a member from the Bronx.

"Not much. Just went to the medicine closet, got down a box of ready made mustard plasters, put 'em to soak and squeezed enough of the hot stuff off."

"Good night," said the man from the Bronx.—New York Globe.

Early Diplomats to Turkey.

Some of the early diplomats accredited to Constantinople had unpleasant experiences even in times of peace. In 1673 the grand vizier, having intercepted some French dispatches, tried to borrow the cipher of the embassy. Delahaye, the first secretary who refused to accede to this request was thrown into prison where he was bastinadoed and all his teeth were broken. Louis XIV was then at the height of his power, yet no reprisals were made for this treatment of his representative. Until the middle of the eighteenth century the foreign envoys in Constantinople were under close supervision. They were forbidden to visit one another's houses or to meet elsewhere. When a protest was lodged against this restriction the Grand Vizier Sokoli replied, "You can jabber together as much as you like when you return to Christendom but we will not have you plotting among yourselves here."—London Chronicle

Health And Success

BEECHAM'S PILLS

GORGEOUS CHORISTERS.

Boy Singers of the Private Chapel in St James' Palace.

There are ten boys in London who every Sunday and on state occasions wear suits of clothes that in each instance cost something like $200. The lads thus expensively and brilliantly attired are the choristers belonging to the king's private chapel in St James' palace. When arrayed in their state suits they are truly a gorgeous sight.

Scarlet cloth is the foundation of this costume. Bands of royal purple between rows of heavy gold lace are the adornments. Old lace ruffles are worn at the neck and wrists. These ruffles are so valuable and so difficult to replace that they are worn only on the most special occasions. At other times white lawn bands take their place. The boys must take great care of their suits which must endure three years. The undress suits are replaced every eight months.

This choir is one of the historical institutions of Great Britain, and many of its old time customs, including the dress of the boys are retained to this day. The choir has numbered among its singers such distinguished musicians as Sir Arthur Sullivan, Edward Lloyd, Sir John Goss and Dr E J Hopkins.

It is the right of the head boy to demand a guinea as "spur money" from any officer entering the chapel wearing spurs. It is said that when Arthur Sullivan was head boy the Duke of Wellington would always come spurred to the chapel in order that he might have the pleasure of paying the toll to his favorite chorister.—Harper's Weekly

UNITY OF LIFE.

Cells of Animals and Plants Alike and Governed by Same Laws.

Protoplasm the literal translation of which means "the first man made" was the name given by a German scientist in 1846 to the shiny granular semifluid contents of vegetable cells.

It looks like the white of an egg and it can be analyzed into four chemical elements—carbon, oxygen, nitrogen and hydrogen. It is now recognized as the fundamental basis for all life. The smallest particle of it goes through what is known as the cycle of life: free motion, feeling, feeding and reproduction. When in some unconscious way it grows a membrane for a covering or a little nucleus like a kernel somewhere within it science calls it a cell.

These cells are the same in plants and animals. Professor Jacques Loeb showed the importance of this fact. Although plants he explained have no nervous systems they have instinctive movements. In analysis of instincts he bound together in the cell common to them the plant and the worm at the root of the plant—as some day perhaps the tree of life and the serpent may be bound—and he called their reflex actions tropisms.

Then he pointed out that tropisms are mechanical acts—that moth and fly and ivy leaf move in spite of themselves in chemical subjection to light, heat and odors which the scientist calls emanations."—From Man is a Mechanism in Metropolitan

Disraeli's Fine Digestion

Disraeli appears to have been endowed with a most accommodating digestion. When he visited Spain in 1830 he wrote his mother glowing accounts of the most agreeable dish in the world—an olla. "I will explain it to you for my father would delight in it. There are two large dishes one at each end of the table. The top one contains bouilli beef, boiled pork sausage and black pudding. The other is a medley of vegetables and fruits generally French beans, carravanseras and whole pears. Help each person to a portion of the meats and then to the medley. Mix them up in your plate together and drown them in tomato sauce. I have eaten this every day. It is truly delightful."—London Standard

Natural Spectacles

Many birds are provided with natural spectacles a transparent membrane called the third eyelid. This third eyelid when not in use lies folded in the inner corner of the eye. Two muscles work it, spreading it over the cornea or folding it up again much more cleverly than a man can put on or take off his spectacles. But for its third eyelid the eagle could not look at the sun. The spectacled bear belongs of Chile. Its Latin name is Ursus ornatus. It is black and around its eyes pale rings are drawn which have exactly the appearance of a pair of goggles.

GET THESE Money-making Secrets WITH THE Farm Journal

Is this cock properly held? "Poultry Secrets" tells how to carry fowls, and other secrets far more important

FARM JOURNAL ("cream, not skim milk") is the great little paper published for 36 years in Philadelphia by Wilmer Atkinson. It is taken and read by more families than any other farm paper in the WORLD. Its four million readers (known as "Our Folks") are the most intelligent and prosperous country people that grow, and they always say the Farm Journal helped to make them so. Their potatoes are larger, their milk tests higher, their hogs weigh more, their fruit brings higher prices, because they read the Farm Journal.

Do you know Peter Tumbledown, the old fellow who won't take the Farm Journal? By showing how NOT to run a farm, Peter makes many prosperous. Nobody can go on reading the Farm Journal and being a Tumbledown too. Many have tried, but all have to quit one or the other.

The Farm Journal is bright, brief, "boiled down," practical, full of gumption, cheer and sunshine. It is strong on housekeeping and home making, a favorite with busy women, full of life and fun for boys and girls. It sparkles with wit, and a happy, sunny spirit. Practical as a plow, readable as a novel. Clean and pure, not a line of fraudulent or nasty advertising. All its advertisers are guaranteed trustworthy.

The Farm Journal gives more for the money and puts it in fewer words than any other farm paper, 32 to 80 pages monthly, illustrated. FIVE years (60 issues) for $1.00 only. Less than 2 cents a month. No one year, two year or three year subscriptions taken at any price.

The Farm Journal Booklets

have sold by hundreds of thousands, and have made a sensation by revealing the SECRETS OF MONEY-MAKING in home industry. People all over the country are making money by their methods.

POULTRY SECRETS is a collection of discoveries and methods of successful poultrymen. It gives Felch's famous mating chart, the Curtiss method of getting one half more pullets than cockerels, Boyer's method of insuring fertility and priceless secrets of breeding, feeding, how to produce winter eggs, etc.

HORSE SECRETS exposes all the methods of "bishoping," plugging, cocaine and gasoline doping and other tricks of gyps and swindlers and enables any one to tell an unsound horse. Gives many valuable training secrets.

CORN SECRETS, the great NEW hand book of Prof. Holden, the Corn King, shows how to get ten to twenty bushels more per acre of corn, rich in protein and the best stock feeding elements. Pictures make every step plain.

EGG SECRETS tells how a family of six can make hens turn its table scraps into a daily supply of fresh eggs. If you have a back yard get this booklet, learn how to cut up every scrap of the kitchen waste and live better at less cost.

THE "BUTTER BOOK" tells how seven cows were made to produce half a ton of butter each per year (140 pounds is the average). An eye opener. Tells how to weed out your poor cows and turn the good ones into record-breakers.

STRAWBERRY SECRETS is a revelation of the discoveries and methods of L J Farmer, the famous expert in growing luscious fall strawberries almost until snow flies. How and when to plant, how to fertilize, how to remove the blossoms, how to get three crops in two years, etc.

GARDEN GOLD shows how to make your backyard supply fresh vegetables and fruit, how to cut down your grocery bills, keep a better table and get cash for your surplus. How to plant, cultivate, harvest and market.

DUCK DOLLARS tells how the great Weber duck-farm near Boston makes every year 50 cents each on 40 000 duck lings. Tells why ducks pay them better than chickens and just HOW they do everything.

TURKEY SECRETS discloses fully the methods of Horace Vose, the famous Rhode Island turkey man, who supplies the White House Thanksgiving turkeys. It tells how to mate, to set eggs, to hatch, to feed and care for the young, to prevent sickness, to fatten and how to make a turkey ranch PAY.

The MILLION EGG-FARM gives the methods by which J M Foster made over $18 000 a year mainly from eggs. All chicken raisers should learn about the Rancocas Unit and how Foster FEEDS hens to produce such quantities of eggs especially in winter.

DRESSMAKING SELF-TAUGHT shows how any intelligent woman can design and make her own clothes in the height of fashion. The author has done it since she was a girl. She now has a successful dressmaking establishment and a school of dressmaking. Illustrated with diagrams.

SHALL I FARM? is a clear impartial statement of both advantages and drawbacks of farming to help those who have to decide this important question. It warns you of dangers, swindles, and mistakes, tells how to start, equipment needed, its cost, chances of success, how to get government aid, etc.

These booklets are 6 x 9 inches and profusely illustrated.

What Our Folks Say About F. J.

"I have had more help, encouragement and enjoyment out of it in one year than I did out of my other papers in ten years," says C M Persons.

"It is a queer little paper. I have sometimes read it through and thought I was done with it, then pick it up again and find something new to interest me," says Alfred Krogh.

"Farm Journal is like a bit of sunshine in our home. It is making a better class of people out of farmers. It was first sent me as a Christmas present, and I think it the choicest present I ever received," says P R LeValley.

"We have read your dear little paper for nearly 40 years. Now we don't live on the farm any more, yet I still have a hankering for the old paper. I feel that I belong to the family and every page is as dear and familiar as the faces of old friends," says Mrs B W Edwards.

"I fear I neglect my business to read it. I wish it could be in the hands of every farmer in Virginia," says W S Cline.

"I live in a town where the yard is only 15 x 38 feet, but I could not do without the Farm Journal," says Miss Sara Carpenter.

"I get lots of books and papers, and put them aside for future reading. The only paper I seem to have in my hands all the time is Farm Journal. I can't finish reading it. Can't you make it less interesting, so I can have a chance at my other papers?" writes John Swail.

"If I am lonesome, down-hearted, or tired, I go to Farm Journal for comfort, next to the Bible," says Mabel Dewitt.

"Farm Journal has a cheerful vein running through it that makes it a splendid cure for the 'blues.' When coming home tired in mind and body, I sit down and read it, and it seems to give me new inspiration for life," writes G E Halderman.

"We have a brother-in-law who loves a joke. We live in Greater New York, and consider ourselves quite citified so when he sent us the Farm Journal as a New Year's gift we nearly died laughing. How to raise hogs—we who only use bacon in glass jars! How to keep cows clean—when we use condensed milk even for rice pudding! How to plant onions—when we never plant anything more fragrant than lilies of the valley. I accepted the gift with thanks for we are too well bred to look a gift horse in the mouth. Soon my eye was caught by a beautiful poem. I began to read it, then when I wanted the Farm Journal I found my husband deeply interested in an article. Then my oldest son began to ask 'Has the Farm Journal come yet?' He is a jeweler and hasn't much time for literature, but we find so much interest and uplift in this fine paper that we appreciate our New Year's gift more and more," writes Ella B Burkman.

"I received Corn Secrets' and 'Poultry Secrets,' and consider them worth their weight in gold," says W G Newall.

"What your Egg Book tells would take a beginner years to learn," says Roy Chaney.

"Duck Dollars is the best book I ever had on duck-raising," says F M Warnock.

"If your other booklets contain as much valuable information as the Egg Book I would consider them cheap at double the price," says F W Mansfield.

"I think your Egg-Book is a wonder," says C F Shirey.

"The Farm Journal beats them all. Every issue has reminders and ideas worth a year's subscription," writes T H Potter.

"One year ago I took another agricultural paper and it took a whole column to tell what Farm Journal tells in one paragraph," says N M Gladwin.

"It ought to be in every home where there is a chick, a child, a cow, a cherry, or a cucumber," says I D Bordus.

THE EYES IN RELATION TO GENERAL HEALTH
Underlying certain symptoms of eye trouble may be grave disturbances of the general health of men and women. A searching and accurate examination will reveal to the eye of a trained optometrist what the causes are. Glasses may not be needed at all in some cases, while in others the proper glasses may cure headaches and nerve strain. I make a specialty of the use of the ophthalmoscope, having acquired a thorough practical and technical knowledge of its application. For consultation call any day.

FLOOD OF BILLS PRESENTED

Committees Plan to Hold Public Hearings on Many Measures Before They Act Finally—Local Option Again Turns Up

By ROBERT HAIGHT.

Harrisburg, Feb 4.

Although the state legislature has now been [illegible] full month and a great [illegible] of bills have been presented [illegible] consideration of the members [illegible] few of them have been acted [illegible] committees, and not one of [illegible] reached the stage of final pa[illegible] use this is by no means [illegible] insofar as it relates to [illegible] When the legislators met [illegible] informed that it [illegible] policies to be pursued [illegible] would be made [illegible] steps would be taken [illegible] ation and h[illegible] formulated [illegible] retard [illegible] legislation [illegible] drawbacks to the [illegible] at this session [illegible] of factionalism [illegible] of Speaker [illegible] had hardly passed [illegible] members found [illegible] embroiled in [illegible] a chief clerk [illegible] disposed of the [illegible] the selection [illegible] which ever [illegible] reason of [illegible] have no less than [illegible] a final conclusion [illegible]

[illegible] and house [illegible] to work upon [illegible] senate has [illegible] over matters [illegible] and the house [illegible] scramble over [illegible] the appointment [illegible] much [illegible] enough to bring [illegible] the floor and [illegible] were advanced [illegible] stage.

[illegible] present appearances [illegible] will outdo all other [illegible] of measures [illegible] the bills are flooding [illegible] a hydrant and the [illegible] imaginable subject [illegible] of the three [illegible] membership [illegible] trying to [illegible] by being first [illegible] kinds of bills [illegible] claimed to be defects [illegible] originate [illegible] No one [illegible] line on the situation [illegible] predict with [illegible] just when final [illegible] brought about [illegible] the subject up [illegible] Representative Kitts [illegible] a joint resolution [illegible] as the date for the [illegible] and this will [illegible] after the requ[illegible] It seems hard [illegible] that with the bills [illegible] one in that anything [illegible] done at this time [illegible] a date for final [illegible] legislation under [illegible] such a character [illegible] committees can even [illegible] great number of public [illegible] have to be held and [illegible] consume considerable [illegible] already been set [illegible] pro and con on [illegible] and the merchants [illegible] measures being [illegible] But the various [illegible] bodies will [illegible] ments on the public [illegible] posed changes in the [illegible] employers acts of [illegible] laboring classes of [illegible] to say nothing of [illegible] the local option [illegible] various amendments [illegible] high license act.

[illegible] the case for [illegible] the latter subject is [illegible] of the time of the [illegible] will be a great relief [illegible] to have the bills [illegible] under consideration [illegible] an early date [illegible] claim to [illegible] the house this [illegible] before and the [illegible] that they start [illegible] over eighty votes [illegible] It has definitely [illegible] that the sponsor [illegible] Representative [illegible] county and that [illegible] a repetition of the [illegible] session which based [illegible] boroughs and to [illegible] well bill will base [illegible] counties and municipalities [illegible] of 10,000 and [illegible] saloon league believes [illegible] rally more support [illegible] than the old scheme [illegible] and the [illegible] to the success of the [illegible] interests however [illegible] are ready for the [illegible] what kind of a bill is [illegible] consideration. Their [illegible] they have carefully [illegible] throughout [illegible] from all they can learn [illegible] strong against [illegible] in the Brooks act at [illegible] time. They do not con[illegible] the anti-saloon interests are [illegible] the house as they claim [illegible] support of this they [illegible] chances of local option [illegible] last Wednesday, at [illegible] active members attended [illegible] question of great interest [illegible] members is the bill com[illegible] club license bill [illegible] was presented by one of [illegible] the local optionists and [illegible] every club, whether [illegible] or fraternal shall take [illegible] and be subjected to the [illegible] as the regularly licensed [illegible] saloonkeeper, which if [illegible] means that 25 per cent of the [illegible] in the state will have to close up [illegible] as the revenue derived from the [illegible] of drink would by no means pay [illegible] the taking out of a license. [illegible] measure was recommended by [illegible] and is said to have the [illegible] support of the retail liquor dealers [illegible] who believe that the exist[illegible] of the clubs is not only detrimental [illegible] their business but if allowed to [illegible] should pay a license tax and be [illegible] to live up to the same regulations [illegible] are placed upon them.
